this book traces the historical and theological development of the holy spirit movement in korea through six successive periods these periods are characterized by repentance and revival 1900 1920 persecution and suffering under japanese occupation 1920 1940 confusion and division 1940 1960 explosive revival in which the pentecostal movement played a major role in the rapid growth of korean churches 1960 1980 the movement s reaching out to all denominations 1980 2000 and the new context s demanding the holy spirit movement to open new horizons in its mission engagement 2000 the volume also discusses the relationship between this movement and other religions such as shamanism and looks forward to further engagement with issues of concern in the larger society this book argues that mystical doctrines and practices initiate parallel transformative processes in the consciousness of mystics this thesis is supported through a comparative analysis of tibetan buddhist dzogchen rdzogs chen and the medieval german mysticism of eckhart suso and tauler these traditions are interpreted using a system cybernetic model of consciousness this model provides a theoretical framework for assessing the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and showing how different doctrines and practices may nevertheless initiate common transformative processes this systems approach contributes to current philosophical discourse on mysticism by 1 making possible a precise analysis of the cognitive effects of mystical doctrines and practices and 2 reconciling mystical heterogeneity with the essential unity of mystical traditions
